

Effective January 1, 2013 in order to vote in any election, Voters must show ONE of the following Photo IDs at their polling location:

- S.C. Driver's license
- ID Card issued by S.C. Department of Motor Vehicles
- Federal Military ID
- U.S. Passport
- S.C. Voter Registration Card with photo

How to Get a Photo ID if you do not already have one of the above :

- Get a DMV ID card at a local DMV office.
- Check with DMV or scdmvonline.com for required documents.
- For first time voter registrations: Get a voter registration card with a photo from your county voter registration and elections office by registering to vote by providing your residential address, mailing address, date of birth and your Social Security Number. You must do this in-person to have your photo made.
- If you are already registered to vote and do not have one of the above 5 photo IDs, come into the office and simply provide your name, date of birth and last four digits of your SSN.
- Note: Voter who already possess a current SC driver's license, State issued ID, military ID or passport do not need to get a voter photo registration card.
